

Peggy Brengle

Organist

p.brengle@wumcmd.org

Peggy first came to Westminster United Methodist Church in 1986 with husband Kyler and daughter Leslie. Since that time, she has been an active volunteer in the music ministry of the church playing handbells, accompanying choirs at all levels, and working chorally with former music director/organist Dee Kinney.

Peggy is a graduate of Maryville College (Maryville, TN) with a Bachelor of Music Education degree, and holds a Master of Music degree from the University of Tennessee-Knoxville. She received a Master of Science degree and administrative certification from Western Maryland College (McDaniel College). She is retired from teaching music and as a library media specialist for Carroll County Public Schools. Peggy is on staff at McDaniel College as a collaborative pianist. Additionally, she accompanies school choruses, school instrumentalists, and local artists. She is a solo/duet recitalist on both piano and organ performing in Maryland, Pennsylvania, and Virginia, including most notably the Cathedral of St. Augustine in Florida and the historic Bruton Parish Church in Williamsburg, VA.

Peggy is a member of the American Guild of Organists (AGO), having completed the Service Playing Certification. She is the past Dean of the Central Maryland Chapter, and currently serves as a District Convener for Maryland and the District of Columbia for the AGO.
